Murder at Bat Portage.

RAT PORTAGE, 23.—Humphrey Keller, 70 years old, was found dead outside of his shanty, near Rapid River, Rainy River with the left side of his head smashed in by a blunt instrument. Suspicion rests on a Dane named Neil Johnston, who lived with the deceased. Johnston is missing since two days before the discovery of the body. Keller's neighbor, Ed. Connors, found the corpse with his (Connors) dog watching it. None of the deceased's property is disturbed. The cause of the murder is a mystery yet.

Longing Eyes.

OTTAWA, 27.—Letters are being received at the Interior Department from settlers in the Western States, chiefly Indiana, Colorado and Nebraska, asking for information relative to the homestead laws in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. Many of the writers complain of the unsuitability of the climate in Nebraska and Indiana, the crops having suffered severely from drought for several seasons. A Nebraska clergyman writing the Department this week says a dozen farmers in his vicinity are casting long looks towards Manitoba and the Nor-

C. P. R. Trains.

PORT ARTHUR, May 19.—General Superintendent Whyte arrived on the Alberta this afternoon. Regarding changes in the running of trains in the west, he said there would be practically no change, although arrangements are not definitely settled yet. The first intention was to have the Pacific express leave Montreal in the morning instead of at night and have the Atlantic express reach here at 1:30 a.m., but this arrangement was knocked in the head, as it would injure the lake business. It is likely the time of trains running will be left about as at present, but the express from the west would be brought here an hour earlier. Mr. Whyte said a local would be put on between Winnipeg and Brandon, leaving Brandon in the morning and Winnipeg in the even-

The Allies Want Damages.

QUEBEC, 28.—The owners of the "Felixine" are suing the owners of the Cynthia for twenty thousand pounds for damages sustained by the recent collision.

A Montreal Engagement.

The Body of an Unknown Man Found—A Paul Murder.

QUEBEC, 25.—The body of an unknown man was found on the beach at Bridgewater Cove, Sillery, this morning, bearing all the evidence of foul murder being committed. His feet were tied together and a heavy stone about thirty pounds tied around the shoulders. It is supposed the man was first robbed and then thrown into the river to conceal the crime. A handkerchief was found on the body marked "Lesieur 3." The coroner will hold an inquest.

Sunk in Port.

MONTRÉAL, 28.—As the Donaldson steamship "Cynthia" was proceeding to port early this morning from Glasgow, she was run into by the Allan line steamship "Polynesian" and sank. Eight of the crew of the Cynthia were drowned. They were residents of Glasgow, Scotland. The Cynthia was inward bound from Glasgow with a general cargo chiefly pig iron. She carried no passengers. The Polynesian was badly damaged, but did not stop to render any aid to the drowning crew.

There is no doubt the Polynesian was to blame as she was out of her course. The saddest part of the whole affair is that the people of Pointe aux Trembles village offered no assistance. The place is nearly all French and they stood on the bank by the side of the parish priest offering prayers for the souls of the drowning men, not thinking of trying to save a life. The Polynesian arrived at Quebec, but the officers refuse to say anything.

The Coast Ports.

OTTAWA, 20.—The recent discussion in the House of Lords relative to the Esquimal fortifications has attracted much attention here. The statement that the Dominion Government promised to pay £7,000 annually to support a detachment of Royal Marine Artillery at Esquimalt will probably be found in correct when the report of the debate reaches Canada.

A detachment of sappers is now en route to British Columbia to commence work on the fortifications, but this arrangement is entirely independent of the Dominion authorities.

It is supposed from the report cabled that the Royal Artillery will take the place of "C" Battery, but I learn positively that "C" Battery will be maintained independent of any arrangement

the war office may make.

Mail advices

from London today say the Imperial arrangements are merely tentative, as definite action cannot be taken until Ottawa has been heard from.

British and American Ships for Behring's

Sea.

OTTAWA, 25.—A report is current in official circles that a British man-of-war will shortly leave Victoria B. B. for Behring's

Sea to inquire into seizures of British vessels by American cutters.

WASHINGTON, 26.—The news that the British Government has ordered a British man-of-war from Victoria to Behring sea to protect British vessels in illegal seal fishing, caused considerable surprise here today. Secretary Wandom went to the navy department and had a conference with Secretary Tracey.

As a result the light armed vessel Tetis which was on her way north to reinforce the president's proclamation, was stopped by telegram at Tacoma, and she will be replaced within a week by the Iroquois. The Iroquois is a modern vessel of 1575 tons and carries six smooth bore guns with a forward and after pivot, consisting of 6 inch muzzle loading rifle.

She also has a secondary battery of Hotchkiss and Gatling guns.

Her crew will be made up of 18 officers and 176 sailors and marines who will be taken from the crews of the vessels wrecked at Apia. The Iroquois is at Mare

Island navy yard and will be ready in a

PRESERVE THE SONGSTERS.

It is a pity that we have not some law in the Territories against the killing of the songsters of the prairies, our native insectivorous birds. Large numbers of that lovely singer the meadow lark, whose one sweet note is a revelation of the most beautiful music, are being shot, and the pretty bird is becoming scarce. We should have a law protecting these birds and the other sweet singers of the country; but in the meantime our own love of the beautiful should be a protection to the birds not protected by the game laws.

THE NORTHERN RESERVE.

While Canadians as a general rule display an inclination to ignore the importance of the great country to the north of the Saskatchewan, and while even the people of this district appear to regard the opening up of the country as of very little importance, it is refreshing to notice such an influential paper as the Drovers Journal, of Chicago, pointing out the great importance of the vast regions north of Alberta. Our Chicago contemporary speaking of the projected railways to the north in a recent editorial remarked:

"The Drovers Journal has heretofore suggested that this kind of a railway line would be constructed and over or rather through the very region of country here referred to. Taking Winnipeg or any point west of that place on the C. P. R. for a starting point, the new company would skirt the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains until the eastern branch of the Yukon River would be reached, where the road would sooner or later branch, one branch going down the river until it should strike a suitable point on the Behring's Sea or Strait, most likely at a point opposite the narrowest point on Behring Strait with a view of ultimately making the new road a part of the all rail route between New York and London. The other branch of the new railway would be constructed to Great Slave Lake at the head of the Mackenzie River basin. We have, therefore, stated that full settlement would in the no. very distant future be carried into the great basin of which we here speak. All thru' the present century the parties representing the Hudson Bay Company have lived and flourished in that far north country and with good railway facilities at command settlement can be introduced and sustained in that country. Wheat, hay, oats, barley, and rye crops, with nearly all kinds of root crops can be produced in all portions of the basin where the soil is good and tropical. Fruits can be shipped in by rail; houses, fences etc., will have to be built in such manner as to meet the rigors of the high north-ern latitude in which the Mackenzie River basin lies."

SPOKANE.

In view of the interest taken in the successful Montana flyer "Spokane", his history should be interesting to Albertans. Spokane is a chestnut colt and was foaled at Noah Armstrong's ranch at Twin Bridges, Madison County, in 1886. He was sired by J. R. Haggan's Hyder Ali, his dam being Interpose, a noble mare, which is at present on the Twin Bridges farm. As a two-year-old Spokane was taken to St. Louis where he was exercised a little and was sent to Memphis to winter. He showed his mettle at Nashville a few weeks ago where he easily took second place in a mile dash. He was not entered to win, however. When he was considered a winner in the Kentucky Derby, leaving Proctor Knot out, it was not supposed he stood the ghost of a show alongside the famous winner of last year's Futurity. But Spokane has proved himself the greatest three-year-old on the American Turf. His race was remarkable in many particulars. In the first place it beats all previous records made in the Derby. It was remarkable from the fact that at no previous time were the weights so large as on this occasion. Spokane's time of 2:34½ is only half a second slower than the best time on record for a mile and a half. Spokane carried 118 pounds as a three-year-old, which made his performance of last week the greatest on record for the same distance—mile and a half. Last year's Kentucky Derby was worth $3,740 to the winner. This year its value is placed at $4,850, but this is insignificant compared with the glory. Col. W. B. Hundley and Noah Armstrong were present at Louisville to see Spokane stick his nose first under the wire. "It doesn't surprise me in the least," said Green Pruitt in Helena, when the news that Spokane had won the great Kentucky Derby was received. "That horse was put into the field a year ago to win that race," he continued, "and will win $100,000 before the season is over." Spokane is owned by Noah Armstrong, who manages the Montana stable, which includes several horses owned by Hundley & Pruitt.

THE QUEEN.

Once more the recurrence of the anniversary of the birth of Her Majesty Queen Victoria brings the people of that Empire to the foot of the throne, to contemplate the virtues of the illustrious woman who has occupied it with such honor to herself and glory to her country during the past fifty-two years. The past year has been one of considerable sorrow to Her Majesty. Her affection for her daughter, the dowager Empress of Prussia is known to be of the most touching description, while her Majesty felt for her late son-in-law, Emperor Frederick, a tender love, aptly described as truly motherly. The death of the Emperor was the most severe blow which fell upon Her Majesty during the year and it was felt keenly. As in the case of all the other bereavements Her Majesty has been called upon to bear, during her long life of sorrow, this great blow was borne with that fortitude and Christian submission which perhaps more than any other thing is responsible for that sympathetic affection of Her Majesty, which beats in the heart of every British subject. Although seventy years of age tomorrow, Her Majesty appears to be hale and hearty and takes as keen an interest in the welfare of her people as ever. An American correspondent writing from London the other day remarked that "Although a stranger would consider the Queen's popularity as having already attained the limit of possibility, there is a steady gain of this popularity every day she lives." Her Majesty certainly deserves not only the love of her own subjects, but the admiration of the whole world and it is safe to say that she possesses both. Her Majesty's conduct as the occupant of the throne of the greatest empire in the world has done more than anything to keep firmly established in the affections of the people of that empire the principles of monarchical government. Thanks to Her Majesty the limited monarchical system of government has taken deeper root than ever in Great Britain during her reign, a truly wonderful development when it is remembered that the tendency of the age in other monarchies has been towards republicanism. For this result of Her Majesty's reign thoughtful men the world over, who recognize the truth that the monarchical form of government is after all the only one which guarantees the citizen complete liberty, while giving the country stability and power, will agree that Her Majesty deserves the thanks of the community.

In no part of that vast empire over which Her Majesty reigns are there more loyal subjects than those who have made happy homes in Alberta, and none of Her Majesty's subjects will be more sincere than they, in the prayer which will ascend from millions of loyal hearts tomorrow:—"God Save the Queen."

AN ADVOCATE OF THE BOOM CURSE.

The Edmonton Bulletin expresses its dissatisfaction with the government for not producing a genuine roaster of a Northwest boom—a-Okahoma. Our northern contemporary rises to remark:

"The question naturally arises, how is it that there is such a wonderful rush of population and capital to such an insignificant and isolated and unattractive piece of country (Oklahoma) while Manitoba and the Canadian Northwest—having not one million but one hundred million acres of better land, with better vegetation, better and more abundant water, and more healthful climate—receives so little? This may be an unpleasant question, but it none the less deserves an answer. Of course it may be answered that the newspaper which draws an unfavorable comparison between its own another country in any particular is disloyal. But that is an answer to the questioner and not to the question. While there may be many reasons for the difference between the rate of settlement of Oklahoma and the Northwest it may be well to remember that the superiority of the former in natural advantages is not one of them. On the contrary, unquestionably the Northwest is the better as it is immediately the largest nation. Nowhere is it that the people of Canada are not inclined to seek new homes as much as those of the United States. Neither is it because Canada has not as good a chance to secure at least British immigration as the United States. The Bulletin believes that one great reason is to be found in the different methods of administering the public lands of the two countries. It will be remembered that the advantages of Oklahoma had been greatly overstated."

The answer to the question with which the extract commences could not be more fully or better answered than by the last sentence of the quotation:—

"It will be remembered that the advantages of Oklahoma had been greatly overstated."

That should be a satisfactory enough answer for any one who is not so prejudiced as to be unwilling to receive an answer, and it is difficult to understand why the writer of the Bulletin's article would put himself to the trouble of putting such a question, when he had so complete an answer at hand. Our contemporary puts it, to say the least, mildly, when it describes the advantages of Oklahoma as having been "greatly overstated." A more outrageous case of systematic misrepresentation, of organized falsehood, than that which produced the Oklahoma boom is not recorded in history. That country was extolled throughout the length and breadth of the United States as the repository of fabulous mineral wealth, as a country which from an agricultural point of view, was a farmer's paradise, putting the Garden of Eden in the shade completely. The people of the United States are rapidly educating themselves up to dispositions predisposed to feverish excitement, and the Oklahoma boomers soon had the whole nation excited, wild, in fact, over Oklahoma. When the country on a stated day was thrown open with a dramatic effect, which it possibly served to increase the excitement, as described in the Herald's despatches—the same day thousands upon thousands of excited people rushed into the land of promise.

The Bulletin has evidently not followed the Oklahoma business very closely for it assumes that this mad rush solved the problems of the development of the country. Our contemporary says:—

"The United States government had been to great trouble and some expense in opening the country for settlement, and although a railroad already ran through it, the first to the last of the 11,000 quarter sections which it contained was there for the man who first drove his claim stake in and afterwards fulfilled the ordinary settlement duties. The result is that if the region is good for anything, in three or four years at farthest it will be in full swing of productiveness to the fullest benefit of the national treasury and the national commerce."

A conclusion more at variance with the facts of the case it would be difficult to imagine. The "boomers" or men who made the first rush into the country were not men, who even if they staid in Oklahoma, would develop it satisfactorily. The thousands who rushed in on that famous day were not honest settlers intent on making homes for themselves. On the contrary they were merely a horde of the very lowest type of speculators, land sharks, gamblers, liquor peddlars and desperadoes. Instead of being a blessing to a country even a temporary visit of such people is a positive curse and a fatal hindrance to its development. A country is better off with half a hundred legitimate settlers than with half a million such people as these.

Our Edmonton contemporary is too conversant with Northwest matters to fall into the error of supposing that such people are any good in a new country. That they are not has been most conclusively proved in the case of Oklahoma. The crowd of speculators who composed the first rush discouraged bona fide settlers from entering the country, grabbed and staked on all the land amounting to anything and then left with as keen an anxiety to get out as they had manifested to get in, leaving behind them besides their claim stakes, the graves of numerous suicides and the victims of foul murders. And this is the "progress" which the Bulletin wants to see inaugurated in Canada.

If the government's administration of public lands is alone responsible for preventing such booms in the Canadian Northwest, the country owes a strong debt of gratitude to this administration. Booms and speculators are the worst curses that can fall upon a new country and so long as the government's policy prevents such, so long will the government be deserving of the thanks and support of the people of the Northwest.

STOCK.

The English Cattle Markets.

This season's trading is again inaugurated, I see, by the early despatch of a Beaver liner which it is hoped will get up in time for Monday week's market (11th inst.) but this I am doubtful of. The freight is reported to be 7½ per hundred inclusive of insurance, which bears in mind the rates current elsewhere, does not seem so very extravagant. Still, saddled with a 3 pound 16s freight, and the other ex's our Canadian cattle will have to strike a pretty good trade to get on the right side. At 12½—which I expect will be full strength of any market here—it will be nip and tuck if they swing clear. Shippers are said to be better pleased with the general condition of export stock, and reckon that, even against the big shipment from Yankee land, they will be able to hold their own.

Napoleon-like, they appear to be entering upon the campaign light-hearted and hopeful. May their hopes be completely realized! I shall say no more, preferring to risk the shame of being called a prophet of evil omens. What says the poet, "Hope tells a flattering tale, delusive, vain and hollow; And let not hope prevail, lest disappointment follows." The correspondent of a London daily press, telegraphing from the bags, says at the sitting on 2nd inst. of the Second Chamber of the States General, the Minister for Foreign Affairs announced that the British Government had extended until September 1 the restrictions placed on the importation of cattle from the Netherlands into the United Kingdom, although the health of the cattle at present left absolutely nothing to be desired. The Minister declared that he would not relax his efforts to secure from the British Government the withdrawal of the restriction. This item has some little bearing upon the Canadian trade, inasmuch as it keeps out a formidable foreign rival from our open markets. — Liverpool Correspondent Montreal Gazette.

The Jealousies of the British Stockmen.

LONDON, 21.—The question of importation (free or regulated) of cattle is again becoming prominent. It need hardly be stated that the desire to guard British flocks and herds against infection from abroad is universal. The agricultural interest is a national interest of the first importance, and stock breeders have a right to demand that reasonable precautions shall be adopted against the importation of infectious disease. But the Chamber of Agriculture is going far beyond this, and the hot controversy of a few years ago seems likely to be revived. In March last the Privy Council, a body which cannot be suspected of any desire to favor the consumer at the expense of home producers of meat, came to the conclusion that the official ban which had been laid upon Dutch cattle might safely be removed. It was known that foot and mouth disease existed in Germany, but the department was satisfied that the Government of Netherlands, which could show a clean-bill of health for the territory within the jurisdiction, had established a sanitary cordon on the frontier, which might be accepted as a guarantee that contagion would not be admitted to filter through from the neighboring empire. Obviously the Dutch might be thoroughly trusted to keep a vigilant lookout on the frontier. These considerations seemed to the Privy Council to carry convincing weight, and an order was issued directing that animals from Holland should be admitted into English ports after June first without either slaughter or quarantine restrictions. The chamber of agriculture at once took alarm and the powerful influence with which they are able to command was brought into action with characteristic energy. The government has been obliged to retreat and the operation of the order has been postponed to September first.

Canadian Cattle in England.

LONDON, 23.—The first cargo of the Canadian cattle proved of extra good quality, meeting with ready sale with good prices. The Canadians being free from disease are allowed to go forward to the country markets alive and have upwards of ten dollars per head advantage over the States cattle. The Imperial authorities are rigidly examining all arrivals of Canadian stock.

The Northwest Cattle Company shipped a train load of fat cattle to British Columbia early this morning.

Mr. Wm. Parlow of the Hudson's Bay Company has had brought up from Ontario a magnificent roadster gelding. He was sired by Wallaco's Hambletonian, by Dick Turpin, by Swinburne's Hambletonian, by Fucker's Hambletonian, by Mambrino Paymaster, by Abdallah, by Imported Messenger, Dan by Black Hawk.

Calgary's Unparalleled Record.

Mr. John White, ex-M. P., came in from the west last night and goes east to night in order to attend the forthcoming meeting of the Orange Grand Lodge in Goderich. He says that the Orangemen will lay down the law on the Jesuit question.

Mr. White is a great admirer of the Calgary country as a ranching district. He says the losses in sheep and cattle during the past winter did not average one per cent; while in horses there was practically no loss whatever. The sheep ranch of Dr. Lafferty and Martin brothers at Nose Creek, near Calgary, consists of 4,500 sheep; they have born within the past few weeks 1,200 lambs, not one of which have died—a record which Mr. White believes is unequalled.—Winnipeg Free Press.

The New St. Mary's Church.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The contracts for the new St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church or more correctly for the first part of the edifice which will be built, were signed on Saturday. The edifice is to be in the shape of a cross, and as yet only the part comprised within the largest arm of the cross will be built. This part will cost in the neighborhood of $17,000; while the completed edifice will it is expected cost $50,000. The contracts signed on Saturday were with Mr. J. G. McCallum for the carpenters work and Mr. Hunt for masonry, aggregating $8,900. The church supplies the material, $5,420 has already been paid out for material, plan etc. The structure will be of Calgary sandstone and in the Roman style of architecture. The first part of the church will be consecrated on the 8th of December, the Feast of the Immaculate conception and the twenty-fifth anniversary of Father Leduc's admission to the priesthood. Messrs. Gaill & Wilson are the architects.

Preparing for the Excursionists.

(From Monday's Daily.)

At a joint meeting of the Agricultural Society directors and the town council committee held at Mr. Sparrow's office on Saturday afternoon, it was stated that the farmers who had been visited by Major Walker and others of the committee appointed to devise ways and means of receiving the excursionists who may arrive here in June, generally expressed a willingness to turn out with their teams to show the visitors round and otherwise entertain them. It was the expressed opinion of the meeting that it would be very desirable to have an agent go from here a few days in advance of the excursions leaving the east, to rustle round amongst the newspapers and get short pointed articles published about the Alberta district in order to induce as many to take through tickets to Alberta points as possible. The president, Mr. Rowe, thought it would be well to have a public meeting called very soon, so that a thorough organization of committees could be made.

The 24th at High River.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Queen's birthday was spent at High River by the settlers in a manner which would do credit to any town. Several of the farms united and got up a picnic and a spread equal in every way to what is usually got up in the old settled districts of Ontario. Prominent amongst those who took part in providing the lunch and amusements, were Mr. Morris Stewart, Thos. Andrews, Messrs. Starkey, Thorburn, Vanwet, Begg, Rose and James, and others whose names we did not learn. The ladies of the respective families were most zealous and successful in preparing splendid tables for both dinner and supper as well as in contributing vocal music for the occasion. The spot selected for the day's enjoyment was picturesque and beautiful in the extreme. The utmost harmony characterized the day's proceedings, each one trying to outdo the others in making things pleasant. The Marquis of Lorne who visited that wild spot a few years ago at the time he named this province after his royal wife, would have imagined himself in dreamland had he been at High River on the 24th to dine with the wives and daughters of the farmers now thickly settled about High River.

The C. P. R. June Excursions.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The HERALD is in receipt of several telegrams and a very explicit letter from Robert Kerr, Esq., general passenger agent at Winnipeg, in reference to these excursions, the important points of which we give for the benefit of persons in this district wishing to correspond with their friends in the East about coming here. The first feature to mention is that the time is forty days from start to finish, which will give about a month to stay here. The excursions leave Toronto on the 4th, 11th and 18th of June, but tickets will be good to leave all C. P. R. stations in Ontario. It will be necessary for persons leaving other points than Toronto to get information from C. P. R. agents as to when and where they will join the excursion trains. Though they are called "farmer excursions," ladies will be allowed to travel on these trains. The C. P. R. does not expect to be able to furnish dining cars for all the excursion trains, but where dining cars are not attached, the trains will stop at regular intervals, giving ample time for meals. The excursionists will travel in colonist cars, which are fitted up with berths but no bedding. These berths are not charged for, parties occupying them will require to bring blankets or purchase them at Toronto station, where articles good enough for the trip can be purchased at the following prices:—Mattresses 75 cents each; blankets 80 cents each; pillows 20 cents each and curtains at 75 cents a pair. This bedding can be stowed away on arrival at Calgary and used on the return trip. Fare from all points in Ontario to Calgary and return $35.00. It is proposed to send a gentleman from Calgary to Toronto to travel with the excursionists and give them all the information they need.

Foully Murdered.

CHICAGO, 23.—The dead body of Dr. P. H. Cronin, the Irish American, who so strangely disappeared from his home in Chicago two weeks ago, was found last evening some distance north of the city in a sewer on Evanson Avenue. A bloody towel was wrapped about his head. The rest of his body was stark naked. On the dead man's head were a dozen deep cuts, which had severed the scalp and indented the skull. The opinion of the police is that Cronin was foully murdered. Over forty friends identified the body and there is much excitement.

The Mystery Surrounding Dr. Cronin's Murder.

CHICAGO, 25.—Dr. P. H. Cronin was murdered. His body was found yesterday afternoon stark naked, with the head horrible mass of wounds, any one of which might produce death. At least of his friends have seen and identified the body. The identification is undoubtedly complete, and there now remains no doubt of the fate that befell him. It was rumored on good authority early this morning that an arrest had been made of a confederate at Woodruff, who is believed to have been implicated in the murder of Dr. Cronin. The police authorities were extremely reticent about the matter, and would neither affirm nor contradict the rumor. It was also stated that another arrest will be made today at this time. Theories as to the provocation for the cowardly murder are pregnant with interest. They are openly discussed on the streets, and are not secret. One of the theories advanced is a novel one, and had many advocates. It is that Dr. Cronin was a British spy and was murdered because of what he knew about secret societies and Irishmen specially active in the Irish cause. It is argued that he was not in favor with those who have taken a prominent part in Irish affairs because his policy was a too rabid and violent one and that he associated with men more rabid and violent than himself. His mission becoming known he was murdered to prevent the English government from learning the things he knew. This theory makes some man or men in some society responsible for his death. It is not claimed that he was killed because it was feared he would divulge to the world any irregular proceedings by any members of these societies, but that he was forcibly removed because he was a traitor to the cause so dear to every Irish heart. The advocates of this theory are emphatic in their assertions that he was murdered by a fellow Catholic. The fact that the religious charm around his neck was held sacred by Catholics was not removed when the body was stripped as pointed to as evidence corroborating this story.

The Field Smelter.
[From Wednesday's Daily.]

Mr. P. McCarthy and H. B. Alexander left this morning for Chicago to purchase the machinery, etc., for the new smelter at Field. A full outfit consisting of smelter, roaster and crusher will be purchased, and a thoroughly practical manager engaged. It is expected that the establishment will be running full blast in about three months. The chief office of these works will be in Calgary so that the establishment of these works means a trade of considerable importance for the town.

Home of the White Bear.
[From Thursday's Daily.]

Mr. Charles P. Gaudet, who has been in town for a couple of days, started by the Edmonton stage this morning for his home at the Hudson's Bay Co.'s post Fort Good hope on the McKenzie River, which is the furthest north post of the company but one. Mr. Gaudet's father is a chief factor of the Hudson Bay Co., and has been on the McKenzie River for over a quarter of a century. The son who went north this morning attended college at Ile La Crosse for three years, and has now completed a three years course at St. Boniface College, Manitoba, and returns to the land of black bears and white bears where he was born, to enter the employment of the Hudson's Bay Co. He gave HERALD reporter some interesting statements about that latitude. He says that before he reaches his home it will be perpetual day and that each summer there is about fifty days and nights, if the term can be used, on which the sun does not go down, with a corresponding length of time in the winter that the sun does not rise to view. The distance from Calgary to Fort Good Hope is about 2,500 miles.

The Late Mr. H. A. L. Dundas.

[From Wednesday's Daily.]

A truly painful impression was created by the receipt from Winnipeg this morning of the news that Mr. H. A. L. Dundas, clerk of the Supreme Court at Calgary, had died last evening. A thorough gentleman in every respect, he was generally popular and much respected in Calgary. His personal friends held for him an affection of no ordinary kind. Mr. Dundas had for some months been suffering from a dangerous type of heart disease and this spring was but the shadow of his former self. A fortnight or so ago on medical advice Mr. Dundas left Calgary intending to take a trip to his home in Ireland. His father is a clergyman in the Diocese of Meath. When he reached Winnipeg he was unable to proceed and last evening Rev. A. W. F. Cooper, Rector of the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer, received a telegram from Rev. A. H. Fodor, Rector of All Saints, Winnipeg, announcing Mr. Dundas' death. The body will arrive here on the morning of the 24th and on arrival will at once be taken to the Cathedral. At nine o'clock the funeral service will be held and the body removed to Fish Creek cemetery where it will be interred alongside the grave of Mrs. Dundas. Mr. Dundas being a member of the Masonic order, the members of Bow River Lodge will accord the remains masonic burial.

Mr. Henry A. L. Dundas was in his 40th year when he died. He was a native of Ireland, but his parents originally came from the Orkney Islands, he was educated at the University of Trinity College, Dublin. After completing his education he went to London, where he was engaged for eight years in the Corn Exchange. Coming to Canada in 1879 he settled on land at Rapid City, Manitoba, where he remained about two years but in 1881 he sold out at Rapid City and moved to Winnipeg. He speculated during the boom and made considerable money. During his stay in Winnipeg he was part of the time in the registry office under the late Col. Kennedy of "Nile expedition" fame. In July 1883 he was appointed accountant in the equity division of the Court of Queen's Bench, under Chief Justice Waitbridge, Winnipeg. That position he held for nearly three years, during which time in 1884 he married Miss Powell, of St. Catharines, Ont., a niece of the late attorney general Miller of Manitoba. He came to Calgary in July 1886. Mrs. Dundas died here in December of the same year and was buried at Fish Creek cemetery. Shortly after Mr. Dundas' arrival, he took a position in the Dominion Land Office, where he remained until he received the appointment of clerk of the Supreme Court of the N.W. Territories at Calgary in April 1887, which latter honorable position he continued to hold to the day of his death.

The bridge over Battle river on the Calgary trail which has been in a condition endangering teams crossing on it during the past year has been repaired. The work cost $200 and was done on Northwest government account, the funds coming from the grant to Red Deer electoral district in which the bridge is located.—Edmonton Bulletin.

THE WEEK'S LOCAL NEWS

Wednesday.

While at Chicago Mr. Peter McCarthy, President of the Calgary Gas and Water Works Co., will procure the machinery for boring test wells in Calgary.

Mr. Howard Douglas and Mr. Charles Barlow who went from Calgary to Ontario some six or seven weeks ago as immigration agents for the Calgary district, returned yesterday morning by No. 1 express. Mrs. Barlow and her son also came with Mr. Barlow from Hamilton, where the family formerly resided and will now make their home at the farm some 8 miles up the Elbow River.

Mr. Owens has completed arrangements for the Queen's Birthday races. Considerable interest is being taken in the half-mile race owing to the fact that a flyer from the north about which many mysterious stories are afloat is entered. A horse from Banff is also expected to compete. There are a large number of entries for all the races, and the track is not expected to be wide enough for all the competitors, in the race for range horses. The Odd-fellows Band will be in attendance. Those intending to attend should secure their tickets from Linton Bros.

Thursday.

Miss G. McDougall of Blackfoot crossing, is registered at the Royal.

Mr. Magnus Begg, Indian agent at Blackfoot, and Mrs. Begg, are registered at the Royal Hotel.

Mr. John Lineham, M. L. A., commenced excavating for the cellar of his new stone block next the HAROLD office, this morning.

A meeting of the Bar of Calgary was held yesterday when a resolution of condolence with the relatives of the late Henry A. L. Dundas was unanimously passed.

A reply has been received by W. F. Orr, chairman of public works, from W. White, Esq., general superintendent of the C. P. R. at Winnipeg, in reference to locating the C. P. R. workshop at Calgary. Mr. Whyte says that President Van Horne and he will be here shortly, when the matter can be better taken up than by letter.

Several persons supposing that they could go by this morning's train on excursion tickets to Victoria, were flocking round the agent yesterday, wanting tickets, but were informed that as had been advertised, the tickets were good only to start on the morning of the 22nd instant.

Mr. Paul Leseur was brought up before George Murdoch, J. P., yesterday, charged with obstructing Scarf Street with stone at the new Bank of Montreal building. The city by-law allows a builder the use of one third of the street to place building material on for a reasonable time during construction, provided a sidewalk is laid by the builder outside of the stuff. In this case the contractor though often warned by the chief of police not to do so, occupied about two thirds of the street and had the wagons loaded with stone driving over the town tank, doing it serious injury. This being the first time Leseur was brought before the magistrate he was let go by paying costs and promising never to offend again.

Keene's Theatre Company presented "The Pearl of Savoy" to a good sized audience at the Royal Opera House last evening. Miss Caroline Gage who took the leading part of Marie, the young actress of promise with a good stage presence and some force as an actress, but with an annoyingly faulty delivery. Mr. Kent Thomas who took the part of Pirrot is evidently a clever young actor, but last night he was suffering from an attack of cold and pneumonia, which made his voice positively painful to listen to. Mr. H. F. Keene's impersonation of the part of the commander had the great charm of originality and was the best part in the production. Altogether the performance ran very acceptably, which is creditable to the company considering the lack of accessories and the limited character of the stage. Tonight "Fanchon the Cricket" will be produced.

Saturday.

Mr. C. P. Braithwaite, of Winnipeg, brother of Mr. Braithwaite manager of the Bank of Montreal, Calgary, is in town.

The sale conducted at the farm of D. G. McDougall, Sheep Creek, on Thursday, by J. K. Shirley, was a success. About forty cows sold at good prices.

Messrs. E. Watson and J. Smart, contractors have returned from Keith, where they have completed a very nice residence, and some farm buildings for Rawlinson Bros.

Mr. George K. Leeson, who has been ailing for some time, as the result of a bad cold, contracted on a trip to Edmonton, went up to Banff this morning to spend a few days at the Sanitarium.

The races at Riverside track yesterday were not a great success owing to faulty management. The gentlemen's driving race did not fill. "Chuck" won the running race and Mr. Lineham's horse the native trot.

Keene's Theatre Company gave a most enjoyable production of the old favorite "East Lynne" at the Royal Opera House last evening. Tonight at the Company's next appearance in Calgary, the tragedy "Damon and Pythias" will be put on.

Mr. Y. C. Kiteley returned from Lethbridge yesterday morning, where he has established a branch of Y. C. Kiteley & Co., Merchant Tailoring business. Mr. Travers member of the firm will go down to Lethbridge to take charge of that branch, while Mr. Kiteley will make his head quarters in Calgary.

Monday.

His Lordship Bishop Grandin is expected here some time during this week. While here he will lay the foundation stone of the new St. Mary's Church.

The ladies of the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer have organized a Ladies Guild with Mrs. Pinkham, President and Mrs. J. S. Gibb Secretary.

A. Harris, the commercial man from Montreal, commonly known as Gen. Middleton, from his resemblance to Sir Fred, is in town and finds the town so full of travellers that he can't get a sample room big enough for his immense assortment of fancy goods.

We are glad to see Mr. Mat Dunn back from his long visit to the Golden state. Mr. Dunn returned by way of the C. P. R. and left Mrs. D. and children at their old home in Calgary, where they will make a short visit with friends.—Great Falls. (Montana.) Tribune.

Rev. J. F. Betts, pastor of the Methodist Church, has received an invitation to a new charge at Vancouver and has accepted. He is now awaiting a transfer from this conference. He expects to leave here about the end of June.

Thursday next being the Feast of the Ascension Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer at 8:30 a.m., Morning Prayer and sermon at 10:30 a.m. and Evening Prayer and sermon at 8 p.m.

The following gentlemen connected with Dominion land surveys are registered at the Royal Hotel:—J. S. Dennis, C. E., D. L. S., Ottawa, inspector of Dominion surveys; Walter McDougall, D. L. S., and E. W. Hubbell, D. L. S., Ottawa; C. F. Miles, D. L. S., Walkerton; James Gibbons, D. L. S., Renfrew; A. J. Holiness, D. L. S., Westminster and J. L. Appleby, D. L. S., Stratford.

A pleasant reunion of the members and ex-members of Mrs. Betts' Bible class was held at the Methodist parsonage on the evening of the Queen's birthday. There were about fifty in attendance. The time was spent playing croquet on the lawn or listening to a programme of music and recitation in the house. Before the party broke up a vote of thanks to Mrs. Betts moved by Mr. Williams and put by Mr. Atkinson was carried, eliciting a happy reply by Mr. Betts.

Tuesday.

Mr. L. P. Wadsworth, inspector of Indian agencies, is stopping at the Royal Hotel.

Mr. John Black, of Yokohama, Japan, arrived this morning, and is registered at the Royal Hotel.

The Chief of Police has received a complaint against the children of the public school for throwing stones.

A well signed requisition to the mayor to call a public meeting to discuss the question of receiving the June excursionists is in circulation.

Mr. Yarlett, who has been confined to his house through severe illness for five weeks, we are glad to say has so far recovered as to be about town again.

Misses Annie and May Morrison, aged 7 and 11 years respectively, left by No. 2 express to attend school at Hamilton. The girls undertook the journey of 2,300 miles alone.

We were led into a mistake in announcing the names in yesterday's HERALD of the persons to whom the contracts for building the Roman Catholic Church had been awarded. It is Mr. Samuel McCall who got the contract for the wood work instead of J. G. McCallum as was stated.

Deerfoot, the Blackfoot Indian who has been serving out a term in the N. W. M. P. jail at Calgary for assaulting the Police with an axe, was released from prison yesterday and is camped with some of his friends near the Bow river. His wife who is a Blood and used to show her horsemanship on the streets of Calgary, is coming to join her husband after their long separation.

Some more disappointed parties who went through here from the east to Vancouver to look for farming land a short time ago, came back to Calgary by this morning's express to take up land in this district. They do not object to the climate of the Coast, or the soil where there is any land, but say it is simply impossible to get land, except what is covered by heavy timber or is so rough that it cannot be worked at prices which men of moderate means can reach.

A party of seven persons arrived in Calgary this morning from Ireland by No. one express, and are at the Palace Hotel. They left Dublin on the 9th inst. for Liverpool, where they took steamer for Montreal and from there to Calgary by the C. P. Railway. The party comprises four gentlemen of means, two mechanics and one young woman. They inform us that it is their intention to take up either Government or C. P. R. land and develop it in whatever way seems to them the most promising of good results.

Mr. J. R. Mollison, manager of Sir John L. Kaye's farms, returned this morning from a trip of inspection. He visited nine out of the ten farms, and reports everything as going on satisfactorily. The forty-five practical farmers brought out from Scotland and England this spring are proving of great use on the land. At Balgonie 2,000 acres have been put under crop, while at the other nine farms an average of from 500 to 600 acres are under cultivation, making a total of between 8,000 and 9,000 acres in crop. The season, as in most parts of the Northwest, opened rather dry, but recently there have been fine rains with every indication of a sufficiently moist summer. So that the prospects of the year's operations which after all are only initial of Sir John's undertaking, are very promising.

The C. P. R. Land.

Mr. Wm. Pearce, Dominion inspector of mines, will start out in a few days with a staff of surveyors to examine the lands which the C. P. R. proposes to reject as part of its land grant so as to be quite sure that they are lands of a class "not fairly fit for settlement," specified in clause 11 of the contract between the Government and the company. Mr. Pearce's abilities and long experience as a surveyor qualify him in an eminent degree for the responsible task. He was employed by the Department of the Interior as a surveyor in the Northwest from 1874 down to his appointment as inspector of Dominion land agencies, and has been engaged on special work for the department every year more or less since. — Ottawa Correspondence Empire.
